

LIONS SCHOOL, MIRZAPUR
UNIT TEST-II – 2020

CLASS - XI
PSYCHOLOGY (037)

Time – 50 Minutes
Max Marks – 25

General instructions

- ❖ All questions are compulsory and answers should be brief and to the point.
- ❖ Marks for each question are indicated against it.

Q.1- When we go to a matinee show, on entering the theatre we find it difficult to see things around. However, after spending about 15-20 minutes there, we are able to see almost everything. What is this phenomenon called? 1

Q.2- Artist mostly use _____ to create an impression of depth on a flat surface. 1

Q.3- _____ help flattens the lens to focus the distant objects. 1

Q.4- State four points of difference between Rods and Cones. 2

Q.5-. Explain the term Illusion. 2

Q.6- What is meant by light and dark adaptation? How do they take place? 3

Q.7- With the help of an example explain Size Constancy. 3

Q.8- What are the monocular cues of depth perception? Explain the role of binocular cues in the perception of depth. 6

Q.9- State the determinants of selective attention. How does selective attention differ from sustained attention? 6